edited by david cameron steve munby and mick waters unfinished business is both a tribute to sir tim brighouse and a call to action based on tim s approaches commitment and ideas the first part of the book celebrates tim s life and achievements this includes contributions from his son harry and longstanding colleagues and friends such as bob moon david woods and jo n coles these accounts provide a rounded picture of tim and in a sense make the case for listening to him and commemorating him in action rather than simply celebrating his memory this part also includes contributions from david blunkett and estelle morris that underline tim s national status the second part of the book is forward looking with contributions from close friends career colleague policy makers politicians and the people that tim thought made the most difference teachers in schools contributors explore what we need to do now in order to continue tim s work in their
